

The Partners

---

- SRF Ltd: The Sponsors and Resource Providing Partner of the project
- PRADAN: The Project guide and the initial implementer of the Project
- Sir Syed Trust (SST): The implementation Partner
- SPACE: The independent impact monitoring agency
- Community: Active partners and the beneficiaries

- Develop appropriate technologies and approaches necessary for large scale implementation of natural resource rehabilitation program near SRF factory area
- Positively impacting 6500 disadvantages families by enhancing their annual income by Rs.10,000/ ( ~Euro 200) on sustainable basis
- Demonstrate a Corporate-NGO collaboration for initiatives under Corporate Social Responsibility in rural areas

Objective & Interest:

- Fulfill social and environmental obligations of Business through plantations, agriculture interventions, re-charging ground water to promote livelihood options for the poor.

Contribution:

- Provide financial support to the project partners
- Define direction and scope of the project
- Contribute towards implementation through regular monitoring and review

Objective & interest:

- The Nodal Agency to provide 'Technical and Advisory' support and direction to the Project

Contribution:

- Facilitate and guide SRF management on the project deliverables
- Capacity building of SST in terms of developing internal systems and mechanism for activity execution
- Physical and financial review in Steering committee meetings
- Formulate roadmap for the next level scale-up.

Objective & interest:

- Implementation of the project at the grassroots level with effective community participation

Contribution:

- Planning and implementation of the project activities
- Representing the interests of the local community
- Achievement of project results and outcomes
- Managing the project finances, documentation
- Building linkages with the key stakeholders

Objective & interest:

- Objective assessment of impacts in terms of output and outcome

Contribution:

- System and process in place to measure and document the impacts of interventions
- Recommend the processes for activity planning and execution in a technically feasible manner
- Provide required checks and balances needed for running the project effectively
- Thereby, capacity building of the local community and SST staff

Objective & interest:

- Enhancement of livelihood on sustainable basis to improve the quality of life amongst rural poor

Contribution:

- Active participation in the project activities execution
- Cost sharing (20-25%) in terms of labor/cost of inputs